Due to the many changes in insurance policies, it is no longer an easy task to interpret each individual policy. Although we do try to stay aware of these changes, it is in no way possible.

Therefore, we urge you, as the patient to please call and check with your insurance company prior to any diagnostic testing or treatment performed. It is your responsibility to know your individual insurance benefits and what you as the insured will be responsible for. Failure to comply with this suggestion could result in you, the patient, being responsible for the entire cost of your treatment.

Please remember, your insurance policy is between you and the insurance company and not with the insurance company and your doctor.

Due to the high rate of denial, lack of manpower, and insurmountable paperwork that is involved, Matthew M. Keum, M.D., Inc. Pain Management Clinic will not retroactively pursue worker's compensation claims after initiation of the care under your insurance. Therefore, it is imperative that you make it clear to the office if you would like to pursue medical care under workers' compensation or under your individual insurance policy at the initiation of care.
